ENGAGEMENT BETWEEN TURKS AND ITALIANS

Fierce Artillery Fire Compels Assaulting Forces to Fall Back Towards South and Southwest.

Tripoli, Jan. 29.—The Turkish forces Saturday resumed their movement against Chirgarish, a small oasis about twelve miles from Tripoli, which has been the scene recently of numerous engagements between the Turks and Italians and at the same time another force of 3,000 Turks and Arabs delivered a determined attack on Ain Zara, some miles inland. The fierce Italian artillery fire compelled the assaulting forces to fall back towards the south and southwest.

ALLEGED VIOLATION OF CLOSING LAW

Arrest Made in Lexington Sunday Morning, And Accused Man Gives Bond.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 29.—The first arrest for alleged violation of Mayor Cassidy's orders to close the saloons at midnight and on Sunday came Sunday morning when William Drake, who owns and operates a saloon at the corner of Main and McGowan streets, was taken into custody by Patrolman Kayes on a charge of violating Section 123 of the City Ordinances, by selling intoxicating liquor on Sunday.

The arrest was made at 11:30 (Sunday morning) and Drake was taken to the police station, where he afterward gave bond in the sum of $25 signed by M. E. Caudillo. The penalty, if found guilty, is a fine of $50.

One week ago last Saturday, Mayor Cassidy issued orders to the police to see that the Sunday closing law is strictly obeyed, at the same time addressing a letter to all the saloon keepers of the city, in which he appealed to their sense of honor to close their saloons in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance, but at the same time warned them that if they did not do this, stringent means would be employed to enforce the law.

PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Miss Natalie Martin Weds James Breathitt, Son of Former Attorney General James G. Breathitt.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 29.—Mr. James Breathitt, Jr., a son of former Attorney General James G. Breathitt, of Frankfort, and Miss Natalie Martin, accomplished daughter of Colonel A. D. Martin, one of the most prominent men in Frankfort, were married Sunday night in that city, and left immediately for Lexington as the first stop on their honeymoon. Both of the young people are of prominent families.

The marriage was performed at the bride's home by Bishop Renick, of the Episcopal church, and is the culmination of a romance lasting several months. The young people were in Louisville Sunday and decided to get married, telephoning their intention to the bride's parents, who urged them to come home and get married. They did so and found the beautiful home decorated in fitting style, and a large number of friends ready to welcome them.

Mr. and Mrs. Breathitt will make their home in Hopkinsville.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH

This Offer Should Be A Warning to Every Man And Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals recently had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion, and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Phillips Drug Store, 56 S. Main street.

For the LITTLE ONES

LITTLE BOY'S UNIQUE TRUNK

Quaint "Hold-All" Is Handy Place for Youth to Store Away His Many Treasures—How Made.

Every boy likes to have a place where he can store away his treasures. Here is just the place, and, in the making of such a unique little trunk, the boy who likes work with tools will have a treat.

This quaint "hold-all" is a copy of grandfather's trunk that is in a museum at Salem, Mass., and by following the instructions given below it can be quite easily made. When it is completed the possessor will have not only an artistic and convenient receptacle for his treasures, but will also have a reminder of the days of long ago when just such trunks were taken by great-grandfather and great-grandmother on their travels.

Cut two circles from an inch board, having the diameter just 12 inches.

Arranging Circles.

Use a pair of dividers to make exact circles; or, if these are not at hand, use a string and pencil attached to the end. Set the two circles just 25 inches apart, and cover the entire outside with laths nailed close together, as suggested in the illustration. When the circles have been entirely covered by laths and firmly nailed at the ends of these, take a small smoothing plane and smooth off all the edges of the laths that may be prominent. In this way a smooth rounded surface can be secured. Now saw off the top by sawing through the end circles at the point shown by the dotted line, letting the saw pass between the same pair of laths at each end. We shall now have the body of the trunk and its cover, which is to be hinged to the body by a small pair of hinges—one part of each hinge being screwed to the top lath of the body and the other part to the lath next above in the cover. In fact the hinges may well be screwed in place before the end circles are sawed apart.

Trunk Complete.

Great-grandfather's trunk was covered with leather, tanned with the hair on, making what was called a "hair trunk." If one wishes to imitate the original as far as possible, he could cover this little trunk with cotton flannel, the rough side out. This will give quite the original effect. Circles of cloth are cut for the ends, a trifle larger than the wood circles, and the edges carried over to the sides. The sides have the cloth stretched straight above the outside, the edges covering the ends. Then a dark strip of braid can be put about the edges and secured by round-headed brass tacks, as shown. Two skate or book straps of leather complete the fittings, except for the handles at the ends, which can be had at a hardware store, and the little decoration with round-headed brass tacks shown in front. The trunk can be lined with paper.

A Hungry Motor Car.
Have you ever noticed how hungry an automobile sometimes looks when it is trying to run down on the street? It looks as if it would like to eat you and leave nothing except the buttons. That may have been the feeling of the motor car that got in the path of a runaway in Kalama-zoo. The runaway was composed of two frightened horses and a loaded pie wagon, which may or may not have been frightened. The driver was thrown off the wagon seat, and the horses dragged the swaying pie wagon through the streets, dripping pies behind. They ran into an automobile, and the wagon suddenly stopped, but the pies went straight on and plastered themselves all over the car. The car was spotted with red cherry and purple raspberry and blue huckle-berry and brown apple and yellow lemon pie filling until it looked like a horse on a merry-go-round or in a Noah's ark.

Putting Your Foot on It.
This familiar saying has an amusing historical origin, which is as follows: When the title to land is disputed in Hindustan, two holes are dug in the ground, and one leg of each of the lawyers of the rival claimants are buried therein. In this awkward position the dusky legal champions fall to arguing and the one who tires first loses his client's case. Thus, in a very humiliating sense, both the losing litigant and the defeated lawyer have "put their foot in it."

NOT SALTS' OIL OR PILLS BUT CASCARETS

No Odds How Sick Your Stomach; How Hard Your Head Aches Or How Bilious—Cascarets Make You Feel Great

You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have back-ache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage-way every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will strengthen you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep you —poor eyes, bad complexion, Don't forget the children. They love entire family feeling good for months to good—never gripe or sicken.
